Stunning scenery, cultural treasures, exciting cities, and fun experiences await you on this Scandinavia tour through Denmark, Sweden, and Norway. Your tour begins in Copenhagen and ends in Oslo with overnights also in Aarhus, Gothenburg, Stockholm, Karlstad, Lillehammer, Flåm, Bergen, and Geilo. Guided sightseeing in the cities includes Copenhagen's Little Mermaid statue and Tivoli Gardens, the world's second-oldest amusement park; Stockholm's City Hall, where the annual Nobel Prize banquet is held; Lillehammer's Maihaugen Open-Air Museum, where you'll learn about life in Norway over the past 500 years through a re-created rural town; and Oslo's Frogner Park, with Gustav Vigeland's 200+ bronze and granite sculptures. You'll also visit Hans Christian Andersen's Museum in Odense; and Torpo's stave church – a wooden church erected in 1160. No Scandinavia tour would be complete without seeing some of Scandinavia's spectacular scenery. You'll drive through Sweden's scenic Värmland, home to 10,000 lakes dotting the forested landscape; cruise on spectacular Sognefjord – Norway's longest fjord, and Nærøfjord – a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You'll witness Vøringfoss – Norway's mightiest waterfall thundering down a 475-foot sheer drop, and take a ferry crossing from Denmark to Sweden. You'll visit a Norwegian farm and meet the family that has owned it for eight generations. While you taste their apple cider, they'll tell you about their history and how cider is made. Another highlight is a visit to King Gustav Vasa's Gripsholm Castle. Sample local specialties at a local restaurant in Aarhus.

From the stunning scenery to the vibrant cities, this escorted tour through Scandinavia will delight all of your mind and spirit!
